

Template for Grading Class Presentations

	Presentations Rubric
	Not competent (1)	Minimally competent (2)	Competent (3)	Highly competent (4)
Command of Material	Presentation demonstrates consideration of assigned material; inability to contextualize and explain material to student audience	Presentation consists of a selection of quotations without an attempt to synthesize	Consideration of some sources and an attempt at presenting an organized overview of the material	Evaluation of sources; depth of analysis; clarity of presentation
Research Conducted	Attempts to use sources and evidence	Uses some sources and evidence	Competently uses relevant sources and evidence	Skillfully uses highly relevant sources and evidence
Presentation Skills	Reading out quoted material; no interaction with audience	Poor organization of material and little interaction with audience	Competent organization of material and some interaction with audience	Skillful organization of material (PowerPoint or handout), and good interaction with audience