

For students who have declared a Psychology Major with the Registrar's office to begin the Psychology Major courses in the Fall, 2004 semester.

The New Psychology Major
(Fall, 2004)

Psychology Curriculum

The Five Steps of the LMU Program:

1. Preparation	2. Foundation	3. Breadth	4. Concentrations	5. Capstone	Honors
Non-Dept.	Lower Division Psychology	Upper Division Psychology
PHIL 220 Critical Thinking →		PSYC 401 Cognition	General Psychology [Flexible Option] Biology & Behavior Individual/Family Community/ Organizational	PSYC 510 History & Future of Psychology -or- PSYC 515 Capstone Seminar	PSYC 540 Honors Seminar + PSYC 545 Honors Research Thesis
	PSYC 101 Introduction to Psychology →
NTLS 150 Human Anatomy & Physiology [Formerly BIOL 150] →	PSYC 251 Brain & Behavior	PSYC 410 Social		PSYC 595 Senior Assessment (0 units)
MATH 104 Elementary Statistics →	PSYC 241/243 Statistical Methods + Lab (1 unit) →	PSYC 261 Experimental Methods PSYC 265 Nonexperimental Methods	PSYC 415 Lifespan Development
1st Year 9 units	1st Year & 2nd Year 16 units	2nd Year & 3rd Year 9 units	3rd Year & 4th Year 12 units	4th Year 3 units	4th Year 6 units

NOTE: All courses are 3 units unless otherwise specified.

→ Indicates prerequisite (successful completion, Grade \geq C (2.0), required for next course or level on the chart.

[chart revised: 3/22/5]