

School of Education Requirements for HIST-STPP (before fall 2023)

You can find the content requirements for the HIST-STPP program here, including both the History major requirements and the Social Science requirements.

School of Education Requirements:

- EDES 501: Teaching and Learning in Diverse Communities 3 semester hours
- EDES 502: Creating and Leading Effective Classroom Environments 3 semester hours
- EDES 503: Language Theory and Pedagogy: Second Language Acquisition 3 semester hours
- EDES 504: Individual Assessment to Inform Instruction for Diverse Students 3 semester hours
- EDES 505: Perspectives and Policies That Guide Education 2 semester hours
- EDES 506: Using Technology in the Classroom 1 semester hour
- EDES 507: Integrated Teaching Methods for Diverse Populations 3 semester hours
- EDES 513: Secondary Content Methodology in Social Studies 3 semester hours
- EDES 511: Content Literacy for Single Subject Educators 3 semester hours
- EDES 519: Clinical Supervision 1 semester hour
- EDES 532: Secondary Clinical Supervision 1 semester hour
- EDES 533: Secondary Clinical Supervision 1 semester hour

School of Education Credential Requirements (Non-Degree Requirements):

Students fulfill the Single Subject student teaching requirement for the preliminary teaching credential by completing 3 semester hours of EDES 518: Secondary Teaching Seminar and 2-5 semester hours of EDES 534: Secondary Clinical Supervision, which are applied toward both the semester hour requirement for the baccalaureate degree in Social Science (History) and the requirements for the preliminary credential within the state of California. Student teaching is met through elective units taken as EDES 518: Secondary Teaching Seminar and EDES 534: Secondary Clinical Supervision.