For students who have declared a Psychology Major with the Registrar's office to begin the Psychology Major courses in the Fall, 2004 semester.

The New Psychology Major
(Fall, 2004)
Psychology Curriculum

The Five Steps of the LMU Program:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Non-Dept.</td>
<td>Lower Division Psychology</td>
<td></td>
<td>Upper Division Psychology</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1st Year
- PHIL 220 Critical Thinking
- NTLS 150 Human Anatomy & Physiology (Formerly BIOL 150)
- MATH 104 Elementary Statistics

1st Year & 2nd Year
- PSYC 101 Introduction to Psychology
- PSYC 251 Brain & Behavior
- PSYC 241/243 Statistical Methods + Lab (1 unit)
- PSYC 261 Experimental Methods
- PSYC 265 Nonexperimental Methods

2nd Year & 3rd Year
- PSYC 401 Cognition
- PSYC 410 Social
- PSYC 265 Nonexperimental Methods

3rd Year & 4th Year
- General Psychology (Flexible Option)
- Individual/Family Community/Organizational
- PSYC 510 History & Future of Psychology
- PSYC 515 Capstone Seminar

4th Year
- PSYC 510 History & Future of Psychology -or-
- PSYC 540 Honors Seminar +
- PSYC 545 Honors Research Thesis
- PSYC 595 Senior Assessment (0 units)

---

NOTE: All courses are 3 units unless otherwise specified.

> Indicates prerequisite (successful completion, Grade ≥ C (2.0), required for next course or level on the chart.)
[chart revised: 3/22/5]