

Broccoli Theatre

Directions and Accessibility

Parking at Lot M (adjacent to Communication Arts building):

- Parking Lot M has 5 handicap spaces.
- Once you are parked, you can access the theatre by following the path in between the two buildings (no stairs/flat pathway), Charles Von der Ahe Building and Communication Arts, Howard B. Fitzpatrick Pavilion and make a right once you are past the Communication building. You will see Broccoli Theatre on the left next to HFP Patio.

Parking at Drollinger Parking Structure:

- Drollinger parking structure located on the right side when you enter campus from Lincoln.
- Once you are parked, come out of the parking structure and make a right staying on the same side of the street as the parking structure.
- Follow the sidewalk heading straight and cross the street towards the sign for Parking Lot M.
- Continue to go straight right past Parking Lot M and follow the path in between the two buildings (no stairs/flat pathway), Charles Von der Ahe Building and Communication Arts, Howard B. Fitzpatrick Pavilion and make a right once you are past the Communication building. You will see Broccoli Theatre on the left next to HFP Patio.

Broccoli Theatre:

- The main door of Broccoli Theater (facing PFP Patio) is wheelchair accessible. The entire "back row" of the theater accommodates wheelchair/assisted device access - accommodating approx. 6. There are also a few spaces on either side of the back row that is reserved for wheelchairs/assisted devices. See photos below.

- In addition, to the back row, there is space designated for accessible seating in the front row of the theater. To access those spaces, individuals would use the exterior ramp on the left side of the theater and enter the side door. See photos below:

