

TERM: Spring 2026
COURSE NUMBER: ENGL 2108: Intro to Fiction
COURSE TITLE: Introduction
SECTION TIMES/DAYS: TR 1:45-3:25 pm
INSTRUCTOR: Dr. Miskolcze

COURSE DESCRIPTION/PRINCIPAL TOPICS:

Introduction to Fiction is a creative experience core course introducing strategies for creating fiction and writing about it as critics. As members of a literary community, participants develop the language to analyze fiction critically and academically. As practicing writers, participants create original works of fiction and analyze the form and technique involved in composing fiction. As we read, write, and analyze fiction, we also consider the role fictions play in shaping culture, and how they are shaped by it.

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Define, analyze and apply the forms and techniques of writing fiction
Demonstrate competence in critical academic writing and reading
Demonstrate competence in writing conventions used in writing fiction
