

The Department of Women's and Gender Studies stands in solidarity with NTT faculty at LMU. We urge the university administration to revoke its invocation of religious exception and return to the bargaining table with the NTT faculty union in good faith.