About the Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts

Loyola Marymount University's Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts (BCLA) in Los Angeles prepares students for successful lives of meaning and purpose with a transformative liberal arts education. LMU's largest and oldest college, BCLA offers 21 major and 30 minor undergraduate programs in humanities, social science, and interdisciplinary fields, along with six graduate programs. A BCLA education instills the values of our Jesuit and Marymount founders: ethical citizenship, critical inquiry, and a lifelong love of learning.

For more information about BCLA's events and programs, visit bellarmine.lmu.edu.

About Faculty Publications and Creative Works

This booklet highlights published books, articles, and public performances of creative works, published in calendar year 2024, as submitted by faculty to the BCLA Dean's Office. We regret any omissions or errors.

Published April 2025

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

Please join me in celebrating the books, articles, and creative works produced by our faculty in 2024.

In the Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts, our commitment to liberal arts education is inseparable from our dedication to research, scholarship, and creative inquiry. Across the humanities and social sciences, our faculty explore and engage with the challenges of our time and deepen our understanding of the human experience.

Our faculty pursue knowledge with purpose—seeking truth, advancing justice, enriching student learning, and serving the broader community. Their work exemplifies the Teacher-Scholar model and brings academic excellence to life in ways that shape both our college and our world.

As you peruse these pages, I invite you to join me in gratitude for this vibrant intellectual community and in recognition of all we have accomplished together.

Best,
