About the Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts

Loyola Marymount University's Bellarmine College of Liberal Arts (BCLA) in Los Angeles prepares students for successful lives of meaning and purpose with a transformative liberal arts education. LMU's largest and oldest college, BCLA offers 22 major and 30 minor undergraduate programs in humanities, social science, and interdisciplinary fields, along with six graduate programs. A BCLA education instills the values of our Jesuit and Marymount founders: ethical citizenship, critical inquiry, and a lifelong love of learning.

For more information about BCLA's events and programs, visit bellarmine.lmu.edu.

About Faculty Publications and Creative Works

This booklet highlights published books, articles, and public performances of creative works, published in calendar year 2022, as submitted by faculty to the BCLA Dean's Office. We regret any omissions or errors.

Published April 2023

Dear Colleagues, Alumni, Parents, and Friends of BCLA,

It is with great pride that we showcase annually the exceptional scholarly and creative work of our faculty. As you peruse this volume of 2022 works, you'll find that our faculty are working across the entire spectrum of liberal arts disciplines and subfields. Their contributions to the humanities, social sciences, and interdisciplinary inquiry advance knowledge and address our greatest challenges.

Animated by our distinctive mission and in service to the Common Good, BCLA faculty ask the most important questions and deepen our understanding of the human condition. BCLA faculty are also actively engaged with community organizations, collaborate extensively with scholars at other institutions, and are sought-after experts for commentary on today's most pressing issues. These professional accomplishments benefit and inspire our students as faculty bring new knowledge, a wide range of perspectives, and innovative practices into their classrooms and mentoring.

We in BCLA are committed to fostering an environment where the love of ideas and rigorous inquiry thrive as the foundation for our intellectually vibrant and inclusive community. Our students, the university, and the world need the insights of liberal arts disciplines and the voices of liberal arts teacher-scholars more than ever.

With gratitude and blessings,
