ANCIENT LANDSCAPES: MODERN VOICES

MODERN GREEK SOCIETY AND CULTURE

Interdisciplinary Connections / Engaged Learning flag

4 Semester Units

Prof. Christina Bogdanou, Ph.D.

From the ancient paths of Delphi and Olympia to the modern metropolis of Athens, the mythical landscapes that most visitors call in on their trip to Greece will come to life and reveal to us their eternal stories in the literary texts we will examine. Students will discover a world still inhabiting the same landscape of Greek myths, yet, a world in search of a modern national and global identity.

GREEK MYTHOLOGY

Interdisciplinary Connections | Engaged Learning flag

Prof. Matthew Dillon, Ph.D.

Greek Mythology has inspired countless poets, artists, philosophers, and filmmakers to create, recreate, and interpret stories of the Olympian gods, fearsome monsters, and heroes and heroines like Hercules and Helen of Troy. Our course will examine the greatest of these myths and legends based on original literary and artistic sources, as well as on the archaeological remains of the great sites of myth and legend such as Athens, Mycenae, Delphi, and Olympia.
